Q: Which type of whiskey must be made in the US: Bourbon, Rye or Malt?

A close-up, low-angle shot of several wooden barrels stacked in a cellar. The barrels are arranged in rows, with some showing signs of age and wear. The lighting is dim, creating a warm, rustic atmosphere. The text "A: Bourbon" is overlaid in the center in a bold, white font.

A: Bourbon

Q: What US state is the birthplace of bourbon whiskey: Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana or New York?

A: Kentucky.

Fun fact:* 95% of the world's bourbon
is made in Kentucky.

Q: In the whiskey industry, the “angels’ share” is:

- A) Whiskey spilled when transferred from still to barrel
- B) Whiskey that evaporates from the barrel during aging
- C) The master distiller’s last taste before designating a barrel ready for bottling
- D) The first bottling of each batch

A: B. Whiskey that evaporates from the barrel during aging

The background of the image shows two glasses of whiskey on a wooden tray. The tray has the text "WOODFORD" and "DOUBLE" visible. A white napkin with the "WOODFORD RESERVE" logo is also present. The text is overlaid on this background.

Q: Which country consumes
the most whiskey?

- A) United States
- B) India
- C) China
- D) Scotland

A row of wooden whiskey barrels is laid out on a grassy field. The barrels are made of light-colored wood with dark metal hoops. The background shows a white house with a porch and some greenery. The text is overlaid in a large, bold, white font.

A: B. India. According to research by Bank of America Merrill Lynch, Indians consumed 1.5 billion liters of whiskey in 2014.

Q: Almost all Tennessee
whiskeys are mellowed
using sugar-maple charcoal
prior to casking. This process is known as:

A) Tennessee Proofing
B) Sugaring

C) Lincoln County Process
D) The Volunteer Rule

A: C. Lincoln County Process

Q: Frank Sinatra was said to be buried with a bottle of what whiskey?

A: Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey

The image shows two bottles of whiskey on a bar counter. The bottle on the left is dark with a brown label, and the bottle on the right is lighter with a green label. In the background, there are shelves with various bottles and a bowl of fruit on the counter. The text is overlaid on the image in a large, white, sans-serif font.

Q: The mash bill of whiskeys can include a variety of grains, including corn, malted barley, wheat and rye. Which type of whiskey must have a mash bill of at least 51% corn?

A: Bourbon

Fun fact: While the minimum is 51%, most bourbons have a higher percentage of corn, which imparts a sweeter, more robust flavor.

WOODFORD RESERVE

Q: This cocktail, created in 1927, includes bourbon, sweet vermouth, Campari and an orange twist garnish. What is it?

A) Old Fashioned
B) Sazerac
